SALES CONDUCTED BY MR. F. A. CHAPMAN AND MR. A. N. BADE

THE "hooked" rug of New England is the finest expression of the artistic taste of its women. Living in unpretentious homes with furniture simple in design, they made hooked rugs the medium through which they introduced color and design as an embellishment, and they are the only rugs which truly live with Early American furniture.

The variety of pattern and color is remarkable, and is the truest expression of the individuality of the maker. Your real collector is ever on the quest for these individuals, and there are many here of surpassing interest.

I shall be glad if the rugs in this part of my collection give you the pleasure I had in gathering them.
